

2019 FOGGY CANYON ROSE

ALEXANDER VALLEY, SONOMA COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

THE WINE:

This 50 case micro-production Rose was made by Brian Kobler from a single vineyard in Sonoma's Alexander Valley. The blend is approximately 94% Syrah and 6% Grenache fermented and aged briefly in stainless steel. Gentle pressing and brief skin contact allowed the acids to stay vibrant.

THE ESTATE:

The Foggy Canyon wines are produced by the partnership of winemaker Brian Kobler and Quigley Fine Wines with some assistance from consulting winemaker Jim Olsen. The fruit is sourced from sustainable vineyards from Sonoma's Russian River Valley or the Alexander Valley and produced in small batches of less than 150 cases.

TASTING NOTES:

Color: bright ruby red

Aromas: strawberry, hibiscus tea, and hints of lemon

Flavor & Texture: vibrant and juicy the flavors of red berries and mineral are crisp and refreshing

Food Pairing: Asian chicken salad

-DRINK NOW THROUGH 2023-