

2014 DE LORENZI RIBOLLA GIALLA

FRIULI, ITALY

THE WINE:

100% Ribolla Gialla grape from the Friulli region of Northeast Italy. Fermented and aged in stainless steel (no oak). Total production of fewer than 6,000 bottles. The Ribolla Gialla grape is native to this beautiful corner of Northeast Italy.

THE ESTATE:

The De Lorenzi family have been producing wines in Friuli since 1973. They have vineyards in two D.O.C.s, Friuli Grave and Friuli Lison. The winery uses both modern technology and “old world” traditional methods. Winemaker Carlo De Lorenzi crafts small quantities of beautiful wines with a deep respect for the environment. The family practices sustainable agriculture with mechanical weeding instead of chemical, no pesticides, and maintaining low yield per acre.

TASTING NOTES:

Color: straw-yellow

Aromas: mango and honey-kissed peaches

Flavor & Texture: citrus and tropical fruit with crisp and high-toned acids make the wine vibrant and alive

Food Pairing: ceviche made with shrimp, scallops, lemon and lime juice, avocado, mango, cilantro, and sea salt
