

2014 DONNA COSTANZA FAVORITA

MALABAILA DI CANALE, PIEDMONT, ITALY

THE WINE:

Like Arneis, Favorita is a native of the Roero area of Piedmont. It was given its name because the grape was a favorite among the noblemen of Piedmont. Traces of its existence can be found on documents dating back to the 18th century.

THE ESTATE:

The property has been owned since the 15th century by the Canale family and has been producing wine since 1362. Located a few miles north of the town of Alba, the vineyards cover just over 20 acres and are all hand harvested using sustainable growing practices.

TASTING NOTES:

Color: platinum gold with great clarity

Aromas: delicate and fresh with aromas of lemon and sliced green apple

Flavor & Texture: extremely elegant with fresh acidity; notes of lemon zest and minerals with a whisper of almond lingering on the palate.

Food Pairing: ideal with simple fresh fish, clams, or oysters; also, great with venetian-style seafood dishes.
