

2012 CLOS GALENA “CROSSOS”

PRIORAT, SPAIN

THE WINE:

50% Grenache, 35% Cabernet Sauvignon, 15% Carignan. Aged in 80% French oak, 20% American oak for 6 months. Only 1,500 cases made.

THE ESTATE:

Clos Galena is a family-owned winery located near El Molar in Priorat. Owners Miguel and Merche Perez produce small quantities of distinct and terroir-driven wines from the rugged and isolated hills of Priorat. The 11 acres of vineyards are planted to Grenache, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Carignan and Syrah. They practice organic viticulture and yields are exceptionally low to create wines of authenticity that are expressive of this unique land.

TASTING NOTES:

Color. Vivid cherry red with garnet hues.

Aromas. Ripe berries and savory spice with the distinctive minerality classic to the region.

Flavors & Texture. The red berry flavors are bold and forward yet with elegance. Whispers of oak on the finish. Medium bodied with silky and fine tannins.

Food Pairing. Traditional paella with seafood and sausage.

~ DRINK NOW THROUGH 2022 ~