

2019 San Cassiano Valpolicella Selezione di Mirko Cantina San Cassiano, Veneto, Italy

The Wine:

This micro production wine was created by Mirko Sella with just over 100 cases made. A blend of 80 % Corvina, 10 % Molinara and 10% Rondinella the wine was fermented and aged in stainless steel, thus preserving the freshness and varietal flavors of the wine. The grapes are grown without chemical fertilizers or pesticides.

The Estate:

A ten-acre vineyard and winery in the Mezzane hills of Valpolicella. Owned and farmed by winemaker Mirko Sella. Mirko combines today's technologies with timeless traditional winemaking methods. He is dedicated to the pursuit of absolute perfection in his wines. He also produces a world class extra virgin olive oil from 100-year-old olive trees on the estate.

Tasting Notes:

Color: violet-purple

Aromas: spiced cherries, cooking spices and leather

Flavor & Texture: red fruits, subtle spice and tobacco. The silky-smooth texture is elegant and bright
