

2020 Bluebell Rosé of Pinot Noir Willamette Valley, Oregon

The Wine:

Made from 100% Pinot Noir grapes from two, small vineyards in the Van Duzer Corridor sub-region of the Willamette Valley. This cool climate area is perfect for sourcing Pinot Noir grapes intended for Rosé wines. Minimal skin contact and fermentation in stainless steel ensures freshness and acidity. Winemaker Jerry Murray only made 108 cases of this wine in 2020.

The Estate:

Bluebell Wines represent the collaboration between winemaker Jerry Murray and Quigley Fine Wines to produce world-class wines in Oregon's Willamette Valley. Jerry Murray's winemaking resume includes Patton Valley Vineyards, Van Duzer Vineyards, and his most recent position, winemaker at Domaine Anderson. His passion for the Pinot Noir varietal along with his overall winemaking philosophy make him a perfect partner for creating limited volume, sustainably produced wines in this very special region.

Tasting Notes:

Color: pale pink with copper hues

Aromas: tart red fruits and orange peel with hints of white pepper

Flavor & Texture: tart strawberry and citrus flavors lead to a crisp and clean body

Food Pairing: summer salad with baby spinach, strawberries, crumbled blue cheese, slivered almonds and raspberry vinaigrette dressing
