

2020 Roero Arneis Donna Costanza MALABAILA DI CANALE, PIEDMONT, ITALY

The Wine:

100% Arneis from all estate grown fruit the wine is fermented and aged in glass-lined stainless steel to preserve freshness and acidity. The Roero district is a D.O.C.G. for the Arneis grape and is known for producing the world's best examples of this rare Piedmont white. This comes from a single vineyard planted exclusively to Arneis, this vineyard has been cultivated by the same family for 6 centuries.

The Estate:

The vineyards and land have been owned since the 15th century by the Carrega Malabaila family and has been producing wine since 1362. Located a few miles north of the town of Alba, the vineyards cover just over 20 acres and are all hand harvested using sustainable growing practices. Today the estate is managed by Lucrezia Carrega Malabaila who is the 65th generation of the family. Winemaking is a collaborative effort between Lucrezia Carrega Malabaila and Valerio Alfredo Falletti with a consulting enologist named Andrea Paglietti.
